$38.00+

Trampled by Turtles formed in Duluth, Minnesota, blending bluegrass, folk, and rock influences despite most members being new to the genre, including frontman Dave Simonett. With a fast, high-energy acoustic sound, they released four early albums between 2004 and 2008, culminating in Duluth, which peaked at No. 8 on the Billboard bluegrass chart and expanded their festival presence. Their 2010 release Palomino debuted at No. 1 on the bluegrass chart and stayed in the Top Ten for over a year, while 2012's Stars and Satellites marked a crossover breakthrough at No. 32 on the Billboard 200. The band went on to play major festivals like Coachella and Lollapalooza, release the live album Live at First Avenue (2013), and chart even higher with Wild Animals (2014). Extensive touring with artists such as Wilco and Lord Huron followed, and in 2022 they released their latest album, Alpenglow.

Best friends and comedians Kristin Hensley and Jen Smedley are the creators of the viral web series #IMOMSOHARD, where they discuss the good, the bad and the funny about motherhood - with the help of a little red wine!

Their videos have gone viral, leading to four national tours, a successful podcast, a New York Times bestseller and a stand-up special on Amazon Prime Video.

Hailed as a monster truck rally for moms, this live comedy show mixes stand-up and improv with laugh-out-loud banter that these two besties are known for.

And they don't tiptoe around subject matter. Their shows are rowdy, raucous and a little bit naughty - the perfect girls' night out!

AARON LEWIS AND THE STATELINERS

Thursday, February 19 at 7:30pm

$53.00+

Known for his raw, powerful voice and unfiltered storytelling, Aaron Lewis returns to the stage with The Stateliners for his 2026 American Tour—coming to the BCPA on Thursday, February 19 at 7:30 PM.

Vermont-born and fiercely authentic, Lewis first rose to fame as the frontman of the multi-platinum rock band Staind, becoming one of the defining voices of 2000s hard rock. His transition into country music revealed a new dimension of his artistry—one rooted in timeless melodies, honest lyrics, and a deeply traditional sound. With multiple chart-topping country albums, Lewis has carved out a unique space where rock grit meets country soul.

Onstage, Aaron Lewis delivers country music grounded in truth—stripped down, honest, and unapologetically real. With The Stateliners behind him, each performance brings a full-band sound built on storytelling, authenticity, and pure country spirit.

HERE COME THE MUMMIES

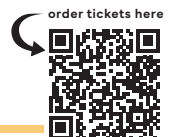

Sunday, March 1st 7:00pm

$41.00+

Here Come the Mummies is an eight-piece funk-rock band of 5000 year-old Egyptian Mummies with a one-track mind. Their "Terrifying Funk from Beyond the Grave" is sure to get you into them (and possibly vice versa).

Since their discovery, HCTM has been direct support for P-Funk, Al Green, Mavis Staples, KC and the Sunshine Band, and Cheap Trick; rocked Super Bowl Village; become a regular on The Bob and Tom Show; appeared on That's My Jam with Jimmy Fallon; played massive festivals like Summer Fest, Summer Camp, Bluesfest Byron Bay, Musikfest, and Suwannee Hulaween; and sold tickets by the thousands across large swaths of North America. Maybe that's why the ladies (and some dudes) can't stop losing their minds over these mayhem-inducing mavens of mirth.

Some say they were cursed after deflowering a great Pharaoh's daughter. Others claim they are reincarnated Grammy-Winning studio musicians.
