March Special Events

Advanced registration is required

National Cold Cuts Day – March 3 at 11:30 - Who doesn't love a good sandwich? Come out and enjoy the spread! We'll have a selection of cold cuts, as well as all the fixings, for you to make your own delicious sandwich. Between bites, we'll also be playing a fun trivia competition.

Grocery Bingo – March 5 at 1:00 - Everyone loves to play grocery bingo. Play your cards to try and win fresh produce, canned goods, or other prizes. Have some fun, make some friends and everyone goes home a winner at least a couple times over! *

Grandparent/Grandchild Bingo – March 24 at 10:00 If you have a grandchild or great-grandchild who is already bored out of their mind during their Spring Break, we have a fun opportunity for both of you! Spend some quality time together while also competing against each other during our Grandparent/Grandchild Bingo event. A perfect way to bond across generations, this event is open to school-aged kids ages 5 and up and their grandparent(s). We look forward to helping in the creation of some nice family memories. Snacks and beverages will be provided.

Opening Day Lunch – March 26 at 11:30 - Calling all baseball fans! Today is Major League Baseball's Opening Day! A day that symbolizes hope and optimism, a new beginning, and a fresh start in which we can all still hope that our favorite team can be World Series champions! No matter who you root for, let's come together for a ballpark inspired lunch, some nostalgic baseball discussion, topped off with a little baseball-related trivia challenge and other friendly games.

Looking Ahead...

Next month we have Grocery Bingo on Thursday, April 2.

Our friends at Bloomington Public Library are returning with another round of Retro Tunes Musical Bingo on Thursday, April 16. This time, players can expect songs from the '70s and '80s.

Trips in April will include Let's Hit the Road Breakfast and Lunch outings, a Progressive Parks trip around town to celebrate National Picnic Day on April 23 and a rendezvous across Route 24 on April 29.

Get to Know...

RACHAEL

Rachael has worked for Bloomington Parks & Recreation since 2012. Besides her role at the Adult Center, which she started in 2018, she also works at the ice center teaching figure skating lessons. In addition to those duties, Rachael is also employed by SOAR, a community therapeutic recreation program.

A 2015 graduate of Illinois State University, Rachael and her husband, Marcus, enjoy going kayaking and playing board games with friends.

Rachael's favorite part of working at the Adult Center is playing Hand & Foot and getting to experience fun day trips with all the participants.
